1. Course Description

We will read the text book "On Caring" written by Milton Mayeroff(1971) and think together the essence of Caring as helping the others grow, comparing to our experience. In order to understand more deeply caring to develop others, we will try to do role-plays each other, assuming to be a teacher and a pupil in the school or an assistant and a handicapped person in the care center or a manager and a staff in the shop, etc.
