

Urban Tourism

Syllabus Number

GGR-211

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

1. Course Description

This course highlights urban tourism, analyzing the major factors of charms of cities. Students will study appealing aspects of cities such as unique landscape, commercial areas, events and festivals, local foods and entertainment facilities. They will also learn preservation of historical landscape.