

Senior Seminar(Western History 1)– II Syllabus Number SEM-426
Compulsory Elective
2 credit

1. Course Description

This class treats the historical writings written by modern and contemporary scholars on the ancient, medieval and renaissance ages. Students are required to choose two writings from those proposed, which include 5~7 works for each of these ages, and deliberately read them, make summary and report, so that they may find their own theme and study it.