

Senior Seminar (Japanese History 3) – II

Syllabus Number

SEM-406

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

FUKAYA, Koji

1. Course Description

In the latter half of this seminar, we will take the same concept and method as former. The students participate in this seminar will make some groups and analysis about the old documents or records in Japanese medieval or early modern ages. All members in this seminar must make a presentation about that by read them, and research related articles and make the report.

In this seminar, we will read the documents written by the war lords (sengoku-daimyo), their vassals or authorized people on the later of Japanese war times (Sengoku or Shokuhou era).