

Sports Information I

Syllabus Number	SPS-106
Elective	2 credit
SHIMAZAKI, Naoki

1. Course Description

The sports information wants to provide various information of sports in a wide sense-like meaning without being seized with the category that it is like "sports information science" such as sports journal" or "the sports media".

In the recent sports situation, phenomena associated with there become a great variety of in various competition levels. By the rapid improvement of modern Internet and news medium, the eyes of many people and a thing hearing become easy those many extremely small phenomena.

Therefore it arranges information to be required as one student of Teikyo University, and it is the aim of this class that have you feed eyes ascertaining the complicated sports situation precisely.