

Finance I

Syllabus Number

MOF-201

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

TOMITA, Hideaki

1. Course Description

Financial issues have a variety of fields such as financial arrangements and fund management by household and firm sector, relationship banking by financial institutions, unconventional monetary policies and European debt crises. This course aims to learn basic knowledge of finance, and to correctly understand financial news. In spring course, basic concept underlying finance and financial systems would be widely discussed.