

Special Topics in Financial Management

Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

Theory of basic financial control technique is demonstrated using the specific case. Additionally, by window dressing settlement trick's and case's being demonstrated, it deepens the understanding of a management technique.

In order to take this course, students must: have access to a computer; have the ability to use LMS (Learning Management System).