

Education and the Global Society

Syllabus Number

EDU-108

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

NAKAYAMA, Kyoko

1. Course Description

We are required to raise the sense of citizenship in the globalized society, and the International Education is getting important in the schools. In this class, we will start to know about the stereotype and prejudice in ourselves. Then we will learn about the history of International Education, concepts, and the practices in Japan and foreign countries. Finally students will have presentation about their own ideas.