

看護学 III

Syllabus Number CLN-301
Elective 2 credit
UCHIYAMA, Yumiko

1. Course Description

This subject introduces students to integrate knowledge derived from the bio/psycho/social sciences, humanities, nursing and current literature to achieve safe, competent care of children and their families who are experiencing normal development and alterations in body systems. It also assists students to understand care for children with health problems and/or disabilities.

- 1: Introduction
- 2: Growth and Development, Assessment
- 3: Growth and Development, Assessment
- 4: Introduction of Medical Protocol in Children
- 5: Immunization
- 6: Symptomatic therapy
- Approach to Information Gathering
- 7: Symptomatic therapy
- Assessment and Care
- 8: Outpatient care
- 9: Inpatient care
- 10: Preparation
- 11: Informed Consent in Pediatric Nursing
- 12: Terminally illness
- 13: Workshop
- Neglect and child abuse/Juvenile delinquent
- 14: Workshop
- Anaphylaxis and epinephrine auto-injector training
- 15: Review and Reflection