

Policy and Administration in Tourism II

Syllabus Number

ECP-302

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

OGASAWARA, Nagataka

1. Course Description

In this lecture we will learn about the changes of the policy and administration in Japan tourism. The policies that varies and throughout the years and the reason of the policy. This will be the objective of the lecture. We are going to choose and discuss about some cases regarding the government. And based on that the both successful and failure points will be discussed as well.

Through the history of policy we will rethink about tourism and learn the ideal situation in that too.