1. Course Description

This course aims to grasp the various aspects of some regions in the world. In class, students will be required to present the characteristics of one area like the Southeast Asia and so on, making their own hand-outs and images with Power Point. Additionally students are also expected to make brief paper in connection with the presentation every time. Grades will be based on regular attendance, completion of the assignments and periodic examination. I hope students participate in the class after they have already learnt Introduction to Regional Geography I.
