

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

KURIKI, Toshio

1. Course Description

Seminar is made by the members selected in advance. The common theme is the future of the tourism. All members part some groups by the similar interests and make up their mind of the research task. According respective research projects, each group should investigate the current situation and analyze the problem, and find the proposed solutions, and finally report the research paper.