

Senior Seminar I

Syllabus Number

THE-401

Compulsory 0 credit

TANMA, Yasuhito

1. Course Description

In this seminar, you grasp the education from a society and a lifelong perspective to relativize your life experience. Meaning the knowledge learned at university and working on the themes that will be expected to result in your job and the future society. You repeat research discussion and readings at weekly seminars. Furthermore, in order to learn fieldwork skills, collaborative activities at the site of community and adult education and seminar camp will be applied.