

Senior Seminar II

Syllabus Number

THE-402

Compulsory 4 credit

TANMA, Yasuhito

1. Course Description

In this seminar, you catch the experience in your school-age from the viewpoint of society to relativize your life-story. Meaning the knowledge learned at university and working on the themes that will be expected to result in your job and the future society. In your graduation research, you make much of practical work and field work rooted in the community.