

School Health and Safety

Syllabus Number

HPH-102

Elective

2 credit

KADOSUGI, Mieko

1. Course Description

School health means school health maintenance and promotion of schoolchildren, consideration for health and safety necessary for school education activities as group education, training of the ability to maintain and promote the health of self and others, Health management and health education at school. Based on this, in this course will learn about the way of health education activities at schools, safety of children and students, and school safety for safety management.