1. Course Description

This course aims to consider how to grasp the various phenomena in schools like uniforms, examinations, textbooks, the hidden curriculum, school regulations and so on, using the method of sociology. In class students will be required to read the textbook and to discuss the specific themes every time. So it is necessary for each student to participate in a discussion positively. In addition, students have to complete some assignments in this semester. Grades will be based on regular attendance, completion of the assignments and periodic examination. I hope that students who try to become a teacher take part in this class.
