

School Health and Safety

Syllabus Number

HPH-102

Elective

2 credit

KAWAKATSU,Saki

1. Course Description

School Health and Safety refers to health management and health education at schools. It promotes the preservation and improvement of health for students, gives consideration to health and safety necessary for educational activities as group education, and fosters the abilities of maintaining and improving the health of self and others.

Based on this, students learn about the approach to health education activities at schools, safety endurance of students, and school safety for safety management.