

Seminar I

Syllabus Number

SEM-301

Compulsory 2
credit

HASHIMOTO, Satoru

1. Course Description

The purpose of this Seminar is to get the basic knowledge of micro- and macro-economics, and to improve the presentation skills.

Seminar 1 course, in particular, aims to get the basic micro-economics knowledge. The course members individually have to make a presentation about microeconomics based on the textbook, and make a discussion about their presentation.

In this course, the members have to answer a home assignment every week. Therefore, they should study economics hard.