

教科指導法(英語)

Syllabus Number

ESS-314

Elective

2 credit

TAJIMA, Hideharu

1. Course Description

The purpose of this class is to acquire basic knowledge and comprehension of activity-based "foreign language activities" and subject-type "foreign languages" in elementary school. Furthermore, learners will aim to acquire knowledge and understanding about the appropriate teaching methods and evaluation of children that fit the current situation of children. Specifically, in this course, learners study that elementary school English activities will aim to cultivate a foundation for international understanding and children's communication skills.