1. Course Description

The second one is to examine the process of Post-colony in Taiwan (1945~2000), based on the theme of "The Relationship between Japan and Taiwan after the World War II".

The course aims to recognize the reciprocal relations between Japan and Taiwan with respect to politics, economics and culture, especially before and after the diplomatic relationship.

By using movies, videos, audio recordings, tapes, and so forth, students can easily understand this part of history.
