

Seminar : Japanese History 3C- I

Syllabus Number

SEM-305

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

FUKAYA, Koji

1. Course Description

In this seminar, we will make analysis about the contents of old Japanese documents or records written in medieval or early modern ages. The students participate in this seminar will make some groups and decipher such documents or others, research the related articles, and after that make presentation all about those. Every groups must have that presentation at least two times in this first half of semester, and at that time prepare the information papers and in it must the point out the part to consider.

On this first half, we will read the records in the early time of Japanese war times (Sengoku era).