1. Course Description

Students will investigate and present each historical matter of the 19th century.

Through preparations for the presentation, students learn how to search references, papers, how to handle historical materials, and how to read.

Students also deepen their understanding of the political situation and social situation at that time.

The progress of the presentation is carried out by the chair who the students take in order, and the other participants are positively involved in the discussion based on the preparation about the theme.
