

Introduction to Law I

Syllabus Number

FUL-201

Elective

2 credit

WU, Po Tsang

1. Course Description

Law is extremely important in social life. Therefore, it is generally thought that law-studying is very difficult. But law is actually interesting. This course will introduce the overview of Japanese law, trial structure and the court system of Japan. Topics will include the Constitution, Civil Law, Criminal Law, and Procedural Law. This course will be a good partner for everyone to study law. Join us, and enjoy law-studying.