

Seminar: Modern Japanese Culture and Literature II

Syllabus Number

JLT-310

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

YASUMURA, Ryo

1. Course Description

This is a seminar about the Japanese culture (animation).

The student chooses the subject that they are interested in. There is not a semester test, but it is demanded that the student produces essays about their choice in substitution for an examination.

They read a text in the object of the choice and do short presentation and report the progress that they read and write every week.