International Communication 1-2: Syllabus Number English

FLE-102 Elective 2 credit

EHRET, Alexandra

1. Course Description

This class is a continuation of International Communications I-I. The main focus will be on learning new grammar structures, with continued opportunities for students to be able to express themselves to their classmates in natural English conversation.