

|                                            |             |                 |          |
|--------------------------------------------|-------------|-----------------|----------|
| International Communication English | 1-2: | Syllabus Number | FLE-102  |
|                                            |             | Elective        | 2 credit |
|                                            |             | THOMAS, Donald  |          |

1. Course Description

This class is a continuation of International Communications I-I. The main focus will be on learning new grammar structures, with continued opportunities for students to be able to express themselves to their classmates in natural English conversation.