

International Communication 1-2: English Syllabus Number FLE-102
Elective 2 credit
PORTON, Donald

1. Course Description

This class is a continuation of International Communications I-I. The main focus will be on learning new grammar structures, with continued opportunities for students to be able to express themselves to their classmates in natural English conversation.