

Academic-Writing Exercises III

Syllabus Number

SEM-203

Compulsory 2
credit

NOMOTO, Takashi

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is preparing to write the essay which theme associated with "To identify human and social problems from one's own perspective and to gain an essential understanding of them" upon graduation. In this process, we will also reinforce kanji and the vocabulary and expressions necessary for an accurate representation of the text. During this semester, we will mainly acquire appropriate research methods, gather and organize, and get an accurate understanding of past research.