

Brain Science and Education

FUJII, Yasushi
Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

This class is taught by a teacher who is a pediatrician with a guest teacher who is an expert of the visual cognition. The course deals with the brain activity special concerning to the Education such as the Mirror Neuron System, the Visual Cognition and the Memory. Students will acquire basic medical knowledge about language development and communication skill development. The goal of the course is to reconsider the variable tasks in the field of the education from a perspective of the Brain Science.