1. Course Description

In this class, we aim to acquire sociological literacy related to everyday communication. Everyday life is full of various communications, from daily conversations via LINE to watching YouTube. In the first half of the class, you will cultivate a basic perspective for understanding communication phenomena across various fields.

The second half of the class will focus on media communication, especially video communication. In our daily life, communication via video, such as YouTube viewing and video distribution services, is increasing more and more. In class, we aim to improve media literacy not only by reading the video, but also by acquiring the basic viewpoints and specialized skills to master it.
