1. Course Description

In this seminar, I aim for students to master the basic theory of management strategy theory and applied ability of the theory with the theme of "theory and practice of management strategy theory". Specifically, I aim for students to achieve the purpose of this seminar by acquiring the basic knowledge by reading the text of the management strategy theory by turns and analyzing the case by group work. The results of the case analysis will be reported at the "Keizai Gakubu Seminar Kenkyu Houkoku Kai" (in case of cancellation, it will be presented by another means).
