

Curriculum for Early Childhood Care and Education: Language II

Syllabus Number

ESS-323

Elective

2 credit

HIRANUMA, Akiko

1. Course Description

Continuing from Curriculum for Early Childhood Care and Education: Language I, students would be trained to have deep understanding of the environment where enriches children's language, and of the work approach of nursery teachers. In the course, they would learn how children's words are born and developed in the field of childcare, and comprehend the role of nursery teachers. In addition, Students would be developed the sense of the use of language in the field of childcare and learn the method of writing teaching plan, by participating in trial childcare, childcare training and educational training.