

Business English IV

Syllabus Number

ENG-202

Compulsory 1 credit

TAJIMA, Hideharu

1. Course Description

To further acquire the basics of English in order to learn business English, based on what was learned in the previous semester. Students will learn the basics of business English while studying various business situations. For example, through various situations such as business transactions and negotiations, you will learn to communicate more effectively in English.