

Junior Seminar II

Syllabus Number

SEM-302

Compulsory 2
credit

EHARA, Hiromi

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to develop each student's research and presentation skills covering various fields about Spanish-speaking countries. Junior seminar is open to students who have interests in history, politics, literature, culture, nature, international relations, and various disciplines of Spanish speaking countries. Students choose themes interesting to them, look for data and information, find hypothesis, analyze and present the results in the class. Doing group work when necessary, students will be able to progress in their research skills and to experience active collaboration with others step by step.