

Special Topics in Business Administration

Elective 2 credit

1. Course Description

This course focuses on the internal control system. The internal control system-establishing responsibility of the board of directors is specified in company law article 362 (the authority of the board of directors and so on). And we can understand the internal control as the business management technique of the risk base.

In the spring semester, we analyze the issue of Nissan Motor Corporation as the case, it reviews the role of "the internal control" from the viewpoint of the corporate-governance.
