

Omnibus Overview of Tourism I

Syllabus Number

TOS-101

Compulsory 2
credit

OGASAWARA, Nagataka

1. Course Description

This class is an interdisciplinary course for tourism study. Students will learn the basic knowledge of tourism study so that they can further obtain the special knowledge through the deep understanding of tourism. The lecture includes the following topics on tourism study: 1) definition and formation of tourism, 2) tourism history, 3) trends and status, 4) psychology and behavior, 5) tourism resources, 6) tourism policy, and 7) international tourism, etc.

The members of faculty in the Department of Tourism Management are in charge of lecturing in an omnibus formation.