

History of Japanese Economy II

Syllabus Number

ECH-202

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

MIYATA, Jun

1. Course Description

This lecture course for college student, we study history of Japanese economy. The coverage period is from 1853 to 1945. And what is more, students must make good preparations and review what was learned. The contents of this class will help students to obtain a complete view of historical transition shaped by economic activity of Japanese. We must absorb a wider view for economics, routine economical information, current and future prospective of economic activity of mankind.