

Transportation in Tourism Industry I

Syllabus Number

MAN-209

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

1. Course Description

We learn about transportation for tourism. At first, we study the history of relationship between tourism and transportation. Then we learn about the roles of transportation means such as railway, bus, ship and airplanes. We will develop deep understanding about tourism. This lecture is basically conducted face-to-face.