司法・犯罪心理学 II

Syllabus Number SOP-206

Elective 2 credit

OKAMOTO, Junko

1. Course Description

The way of treating juveniles who commit crime could be a touchstone of the quality of that society of handling children. In this course students learn the history of judiciary towards juvenile offenders and the current system and various organizations to rehabilitate and support them. Students are expected to deepen the awareness of ones' own attitudes and stereotypes, and 'think themselves.' Completion of the course "Judicial/criminal Psychology I" could help understand the class, though not obligation.
