

Basic Spanish VII

Syllabus Number

SPA-107

Compulsory 1
credit

MORALES, Jaime

1. Course Description

This semester will be focused on the regular and irregular present tense of the indicative mode, students will develop the four skills necessary to master a language (listening, speaking, reading, writing)

At the end of the first semester, students will be able to have a basic conversation about topics of their daily routine, place orders in a restaurant, and describe people or places.

Additionally, there will be an introduction to the use of the reflexive form and the form of the verbs like "Gustar".