Data Processing I (Applied Spreadsheet Calculation)

1. Course Description

This course introduces data processing on Excel to students. Spreadsheet calculation, charting, pivot table, and so on. As a data processing, this course deals with the basic concepts, but students taking this course need to already have basic Excel techniques.