教育の制度と経営

Syllabus Number EDU-124

Elective 2 credit

SUGISAKA, Ikuko

1. Course Description

1 Outline of this class

Students understand basic principles about the social environment, educational systems, and how to run schools. They learn how educational systems, curriculum, and a lot of school duties are provided by law.

The seats of students are already fixed. Students do cooperative activities and acquire skills of summarizing their opinions, explaining them, and expressing them.

2 Aim of this class

Students understand diversity of education. They come to explain the social environment, educational systems, and how to run schools.

Students come to acquire skills of communication and presentation by doing cooperative activities.