Introduction to Law II

Syllabus Number

FUL-102

Elective

2 credit

NAKAMURA, Erika

1. Course Description

Our daily lives are influenced by matters occurred abroad. In this course, students will learn that there are different laws with respect to activities of people, companies, states or international organizations in the international society.