Sociology of Law II

Syllabus Number FUL-210
Elective 2 credit
TANAKA, Yuki

1. Course Description

“Sociology of Law” deals with the relationship between laws and the society, so it can be said that it targets in a wide range of fields. This course will especially focus on the laws about “Family” and “Children”, and we will understand the relationship between laws and the society.
In this class, in order to deepen the consideration about “Children”, we will examine contemporary new issues about that, and also, we will understand issues about “Life and Law” and the Japanese judicial system.