Seminar : Education I

1. Course Description

This course aims at basic understanding of teaching moral education in elementary school and

The works of the course are to study the educator. The works of the course are to study the educational material, acquisition of documents, author a report based on the findings of the study and make oral presentation on each report.