

Senior Seminar I

Syllabus Number

THE-401
Compulsory 2
credit

1. Course Description

This course aims at basic understanding of teaching moral education in elementary school and acquiring the fundamental skills to be a educator.

The works of the course are to study the educational material, acquisition of documents, author a report based on the findings of the study and make oral presentation on each report.