

Regional Geography of Japan I

Syllabus Number

GGR-203

Elective

2 credit

OGASAWARA, Nagataka

1. Course Description

In this lecture not only we will learn about the heritages and resources, we will also learn the themes of tourist spots. To understand a tourist spot, you need to know the features about it and the reason why they have the own features. When we know more about the background we can look at it at another point of view. In other words you will get to know a new face of tourism and might be able to be go to the side of service providing in tourism in the future. Not only we will understand and accumulate knowledge, we will learn how to make our own stories in tourism in this lecture.