

Curriculum for Early Childhood Care and Education: Human Relations I

Syllabus Number

ESS-204

Elective

2 credit

OKADA, Tatsumi

1. Course Description

Early childhood is important because the foundation as a human is formed in this period through interactive relationships with others close to the child. In this course, you will learn about the ability to build up relationships in early childhood and how to support day nurseries and kindergartens.