

Information System II

Syllabus Number	THI-104
Elective	2 credit
SOTOME, Hiroko

1. Course Description

This course deals with the basic of system development. At the end of the course, participants are expected to create simple systems and tools. Therefore, students taking this course need to have already learned the course named "Information system I".