Introduction to Education of Children Syllabus Number with Hearing Impairments NEMOTO, Yuki

SNE-208 Elective 1 credit

1. Course Description

Understanding the basic issues of hearing impaired education through the prevailing school context raises interest in this education. In order to understand the curriculum of hearing impaired education, lectures will be given based on the actual curriculum of the school.

Lectures will be given on how to teach subjects and how to make use of various communication methods.

You will also gain background knowledge related to hearing impairment.